II. STATEMENT OF ISSUES ON APPEAL

1. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred in concluding that the Trustee's lack of disclosure of his and his firm's representation of Wells Fargo until August 13, 2012 – if only to explain it away as not arising to the level of a conflict – was not a valid basis to grant the Motions to Remove the Trustee.

2. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred in failing to find that where a Trustee concludes that his and his firm's representation of an existing client ethically requires him to obtain a consent and conflict waiver from the client in order to accept the engagement as Trustee, he need not promptly disclose the connection to such client to the Court and the other creditors.

3. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred by concluding that it was unnecessary to determine whether the Trustee was required to disclose the KGR/Wells Representations when the Trustee was initially considered as a candidate for trustee.

4. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred by not addressing whether the Trustee violated a continuing duty to disclose under Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2007.1.

5. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred in concluding that Wells Fargo was neither a creditor nor a "party in interest" for purposes of the disclosure requirements set forth in Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 2007.1(c) when "party in interest" is to be broadly construed for disclosure purposes.

6. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred in concluding that the Trustee was a "disinterested person" as defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(14).

7. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred in concluding that the Trustee could continue to serve as Trustee and to become directly adverse to and commence litigation against the Wells Fargo Participant without regard to any limitations or prohibitions in the Wells Conflict Waiver or the Indiana Rules of Professional Conduct.

8. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred in concluding that the Trustee fully disclosed the connections of KGR to Fifth Third and finding that the Trustee obtained from Fifth Third a consent and conflict waiver authorizing the Trustee to serve as Trustee notwithstanding representations of Fifth Third in the absence of any evidentiary record of such a "Fifth Third Conflict Waiver."

9. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred in finding that the Trustee was free to be adverse to or commence litigation against Fifth Third.

10. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred in concluding that the conduct of the Trustee or his professionals was insufficient to grant the Motions to Remove the Trustee.

11. .Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred in concluding that removal of the trustee would significantly impair creditor recoveries and that the delay caused by replacement of the Trustee was cause for overruling the Motions to Remove the Trustee.

12. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred by applying the incorrect standard to the Motions to Remove the Trustee.
